The 1984-85 school year at Methodist College got off to a busy beginning, with orientation and registration in August. As the fall progressed, students became even busier as campus activities began . . . .

PROPERTY OF

HOMECOMING '84

Street Fair

Peggy Singletary and Silvana Foti, faculty members of the art department, critique the "asthetic" quality of sidewalk art.

The turtle race was the slowest happening of a fast-paced Homecoming '84 week.

Crowning of the Queen

Mardi Gras and Mississippi Mud — Dance, Dance, Dance

Homecoming festivities were highlighted by two dances held in the Union. Friday night "Mississippi Mud" was on the menu; Saturday, "A Night in New Orleans" provided a fitting finale to a memorable week.

METHODIST COLLEGE

the BEAUTY of it all

A part of the beauty of the campus is the people who live, learn, work and love in the community known as Methodist College.

diet
Coke

SG

the beauty of self-expression

the beauty of a smile

the beauty of beauty

the beauty of a Prince and a Queen

And yes, it is beauty in people that allows one to help another.

Studying, too, can provide beauty — especially when it is rewarded with an "A"!

Suddenly, the beauty is gone . . . It's Halloween!

Beauty is again evident — this time in athletics. Dorraine McConnell flattens a volleyball as Jody Shover (opposite page, bottom left) goes "head to head" in a heated soccer contest against Pembroke State University.

Yes, the beauty of athletic skill that leads to victory is evident at Methodist College.

In addition, the beauty of interesting people truly makes Methodist an educational opportunity.

SPORTS

MEN'S SOCCER

E-Motion and Skill

Men's soccer enjoyed a profitable year because of a dedicated team and experienced coaches. Both individual and team efforts were continually sincere. Shown at right giving 110% is sophomore Eric Dean. Pictured below is senior Steve Little, also noted for his constant efforts.

All-Conference goalie Steve Springthorpe was joined by four other Monarchs awarded All-Conference honors. Honorable Mentions were given to Eric Dean, Cidel Gill, Manny Pimental, and Dennis Roberts.

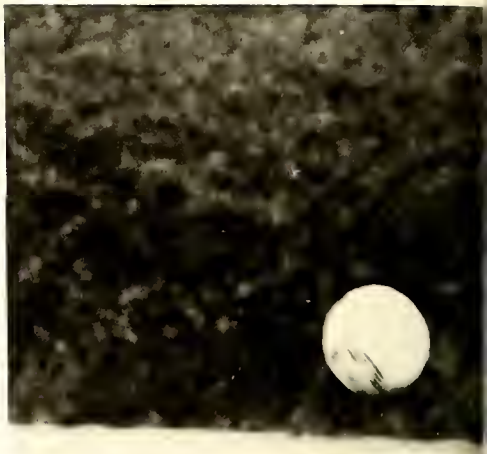
Mason Sykes
Men's Soccer Coach 1967-84

In December, 1984, Mason Sykes left the men's soccer program after eighteen years to take an administrative position on campus. He will long be remembered not only for starting soccer at Methodist, but for building it into a fine program.

WOMEN'S SOCCER



The women's soccer team, coached by Joe Pereira, enjoyed a premiere season that proved both educational and memorable. Pictured above is Michelle Quinones, getting a kick out of the soccer ball. At right is Licia Addison, sharing Michelle's enthusiasm for the rapidly growing sport of women's soccer. Team co-captain and goalie Robin Baxley is featured in the centerfold.

Freshman Brenda McKimens of Fairfax, VA, was awarded All-Conference status along with Lori Silvasy, a freshman from Fayetteville. Brenda was also selected to the All-South/Midwest team.

Above Sonja Mixon shows her ability to go up after it, as Jimmie Lou Morris, at right, is also going for it.

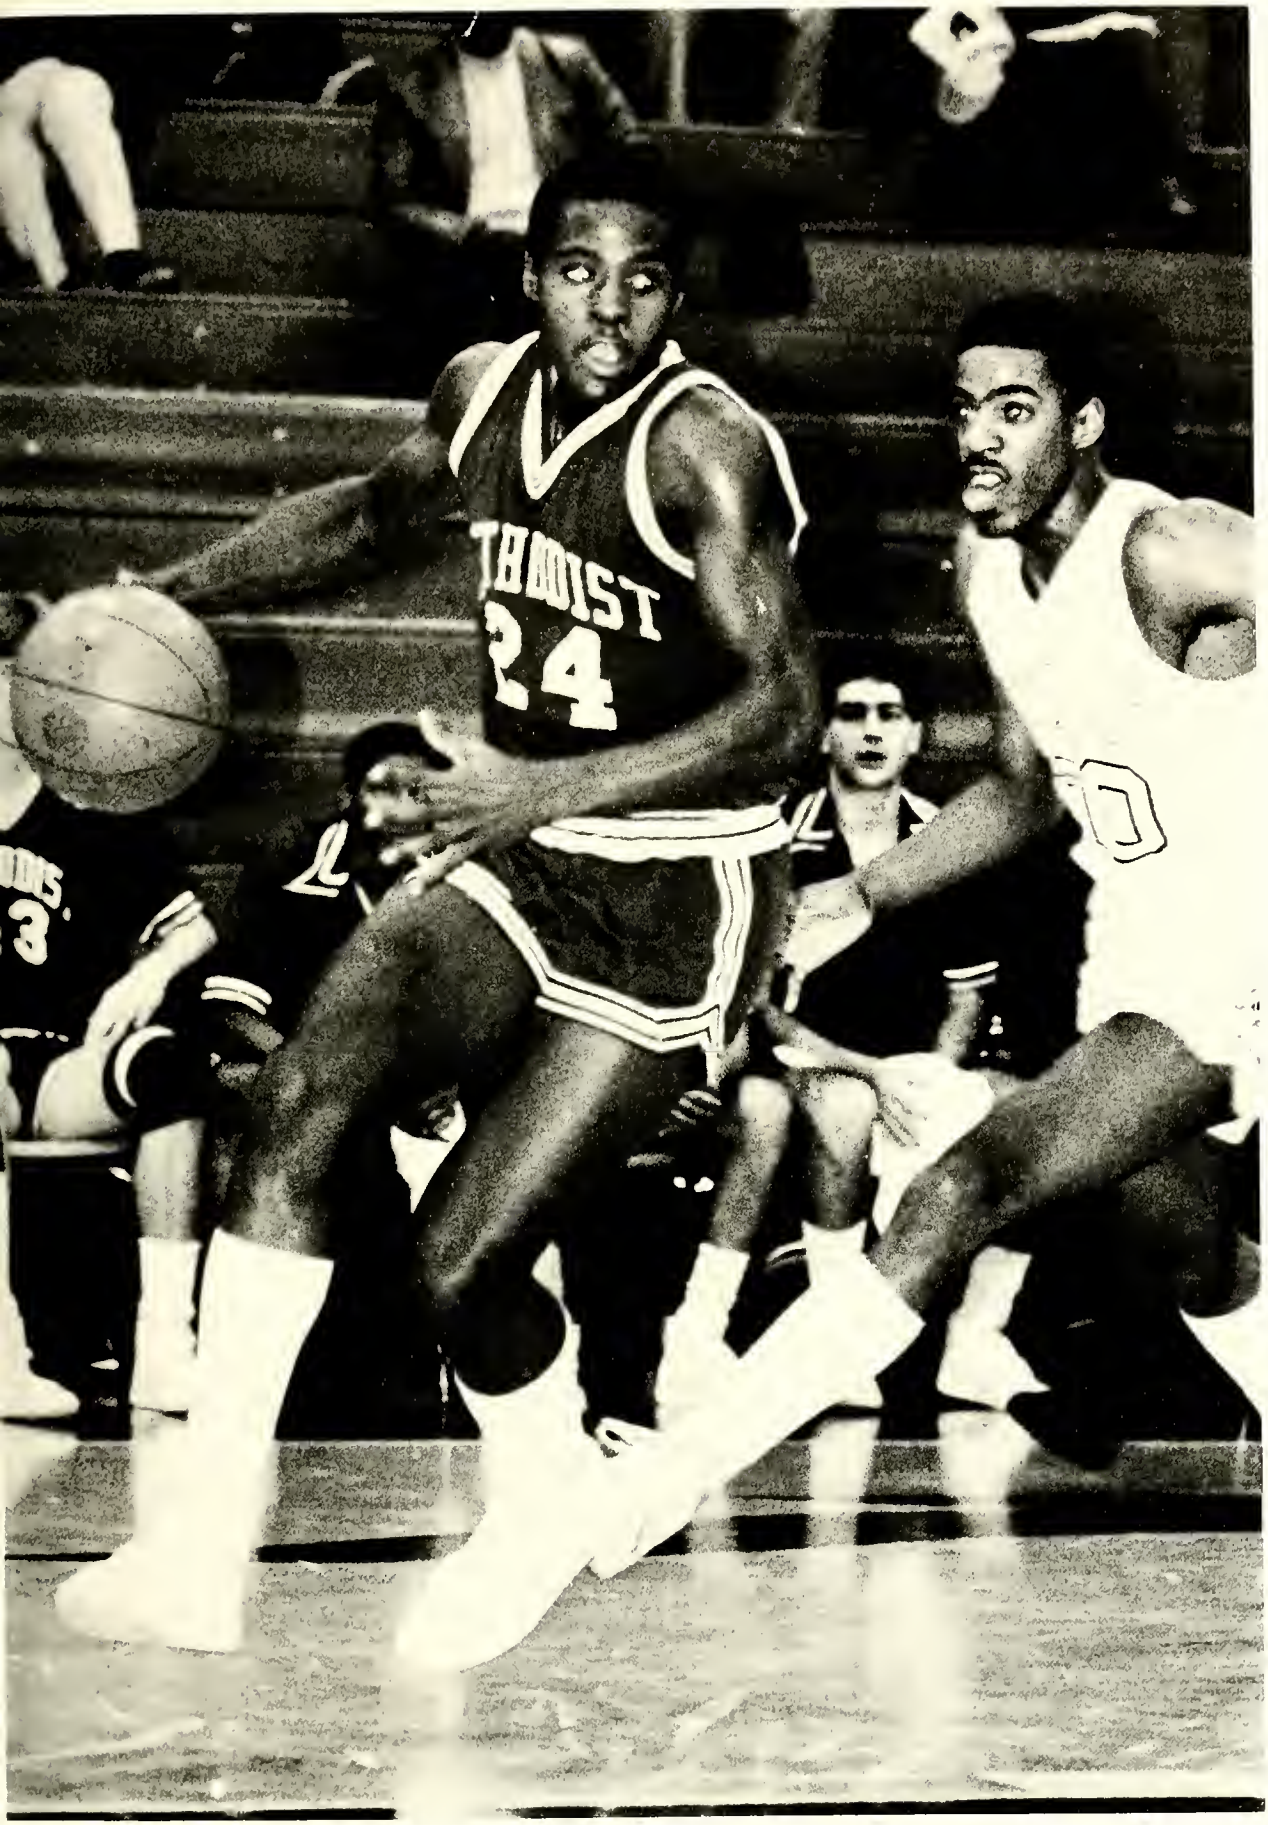
Senior Don King of Spring Lake was selected to the 1984 DIAC All-Conference Cross Country team by leading the Monarchs to a second place finish in the Dixie Conference. John O'Rourke also received All-Conference recognition, and both King and O'Rourke qualified for the Regionals.

CROSS COUNTRY

PERFORMANCE JAZZ DANCE

A performance — oriented jazz team was formed in the fall of 1984. Coached by Tinnie Salzano, the team performed at local high schools, Cumberland County Memorial Arena events, and Atlantic Coast Conference basketball halftimes, in addition to performing for civic organizations.

All that Jazz — from "She-Bop" to "Freakazoids" the jazz team entertained numerous audiences with intriguing costumes and choreography.



MEN'S BASKETBALL

Donald Stewart, #42, was selected to the first team All-Conference for his outstanding play. "Wedom" averaged over 21 points a game, making 72% of his free-throws.

The team worked diligently as its dedicated coach, Joe Miller, encouraged them to give a solid effort each game. The Monarch men enjoyed an overtime victory against Greensboro College as well as additional conference wins over Christopher Newport, North Carolina Wesleyan, and Averett.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

MEN'S TENNIS

Men's tennis was coached this year by new MC faculty member Mike Parsons. Led by #1 player Rod Pierre of Orange, NJ, the team defeated conference rivals NC Wesleyan and St. Andrews.

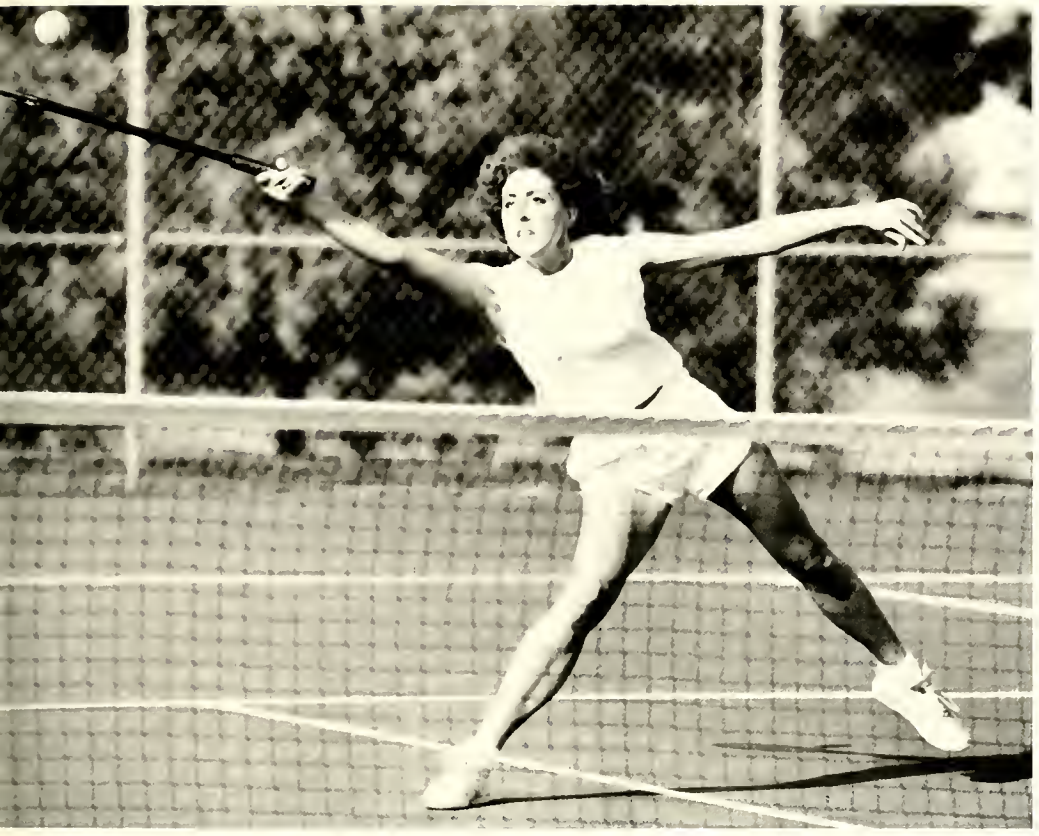
WOMEN'S TENNIS



Women's tennis experienced a challenging year under Coach Joe Pereira. The team enjoyed victories over St. Andrews and Greensboro College.

The Monarch softball team enjoyed a successful season which culminated when the team won the DIAC tournament title in April. Team members selected First Team All-Conference include freshman pitcher Lisa Wymer, and sophomores Jimmie Lou Morris and Sonja Mixon. Donna Jackson, Retha Jackson, Karen Mason, Renee McLoud, and Carla Oglesby were selected to the Second Team All-Conference. In addition, Wymer, Morris, Mixon, and Donna Jackson were selected All-Tournament. Dan Lawrence was named 1985 DIAC Softball Coach of the Year.

Stealing home . . . One for the Monarchs!

"You're out!" — Another one for MC

Taking a swing is First Team All-South Region selection Mark Council. Pitching him the ball is second team All-South Region selection Frank Sessoms, who was joined by teammates Jansen Evans, Danny Hartline, and Stan Mozingo on the second team, and Henry Bowden and Doug Garner on the All-South Region third team.

The Monarch baseball season culminated with a bid to the South Atlantic Regionals of the NCAA Division III Baseball Playoffs in Upper Montclair, NJ. The Monarchs' final ranking was #16 in the nation.

ORGANIZATIONS

SGA

The Student Government Association (SGA) accomplished many goals under the leadership of Vicki Smith. The constitution was redrafted and the by-laws and general provisions were reviewed. SGA 1984-85 opened new and clearer channels between students and administration/faculty.

High Court

NCSL

The North Carolina Student Legislature was very active during the 1984-85 school year, under the leadership of J. Graham Foreman Jr., Delegation Chairperson, and Jan Anderson, Advisor. Attending Interior Council meetings and the Annual Session in March, 1985, the delegation participated in debate on various resolutions dealing with abortion, minimum wage for teens, capital punishment, and intervention in Nicaragua. NCSL succeeds in having more than 50% of its legislation passed by state and federal legislatures.

SHAKERS and MOVERS

Shakers and Movers (SAM) is a new club designed to fulfill its name — i.e., create new dimensions to Methodist College spirit.
After the Student Union Board dissolved, active MC students saw the need to continue campus involvement for students and administration/faculty alike. To answer that need, SAM was "born." During the spring semester, SAM sponsored a talent show, video week, beach week, "I hate exams" week, a birthday party for George Washington, and a guest musician in the cafeteria. SAM's goal is to involve each member of the Methodist College community in the exchange of ideas, spirit and friendship.

KOINONIA

"Koinonia is not something to do, but something to have. Koinonia is a special kind of togetherness, a friendship, a brother- and sisterhood that cannot belong to only one person, because it has to be shared."
— Regis Murphy

BSM

The 1984-85 school year was a banner year for the Black Student Movement (BSM). The Reverend Tyrone Crider, former National Youth Director of the Jesse Jackson for President Campaign, and Dr. E. Lavonia Allison, President of the North Carolina Black Leadership Caucus, were key speakers for Black History Month in February, 1985. Curtis Jefferson, Jr., president of the SGA at FSU, was the speaker for the annual BSM Convocation. In addition, the spring semester saw the creation of the course "the minority experience."

The BSM also participated in "Discovery," a joint effort between the Black Student Leadership Caucus, the BSM at UNC-CH, and the Black Alumni Association of UNC-CH.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national leadership honor society. To be considered for membership, a student must be a junior or senior and have achieved a grade-point average of 2.7. In addition, students qualify for ODK membership by being scored in five categories: scholarship; athletics and student government; religious and social affairs; publications; and speech, music, and other arts. Selection is made by current ODK members, a faculty secretary, and two faculty advisors.

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi is a national collegiate scholarship honor society whose purpose is to promote academic excellence and exemplary character among college and unviersity students. The MC chapter of Alpha Chi inducted nine new members in the spring of 1985: Anita Carroll, Kevin Holden, Mary Ellen Kelly, Laura Kernek, Jean Lemke, Betty Massengill, Margaret McBride, Bert Schroer, and Juanita Thompson.
Led by president Roger Pait, Alpha Chi is sponsored by Calvert Ray, who is assisted by Dr. Ted Jaeger and Michael Rogers.

Beta Beta Beta

Beta Beta Beta (Tri-Beta) is an honorary biological society that donates to worthy organizations such as the North Carolina Zoological Society and the Patuxent Wildlife Research Center. The organization also sponsors speakers and has campus beautifications projects.

Beta Beta Beta members pictured above are (front row, l to r) Dr. JoAnn Clark, (kneeling) David Lincoln and Scotty Clark, advisor Dr. Margaret Folsom; (back row, l to r) Sandra Thaler, secretary and historian Alan Mintz, Chip Caviness, president Bianke Kroos, advisor Dr. Linda Barnes, Stephanie Williams, Cu Phung, vice-president Brian Sprague.

SEA

The purpose of the Student Education Association is to develop in prospective educators an understanding of the education profession, to provide for a united student voice in matters effecting their profession, to influence the conditions under which prospective educators are prepared, to advance the interests and welfare of students preparing for a career in education, to promote and protect human and civil rights, and to stimulate the highest ideals of professional ethics, standards, and attitudes.

Pictured above are members of SEA: (first row, l to r) Aileen Motowski, Rita Savory (treasurer), Carol Zamperini, Juanita Thompson (public relations chairperson); (second row, l to r) Mrs. Helen Matthews (chapter advisor), Rebecca Lozano, Dee Glover (president), Barbara Branham, Cathy Poprick; (third row, l to r) Paul Smith, Alvina Haney, Joyce Elliott, Lisa Bradshaw, Beth Bass, Sandy Stokowski.

ETHOS

The Ethos Club participates annually in projects designed to benefit the elderly and needy.

Not pictured are members James Benson and Debbie White.

Business and Economics

The Business and Economics Club sponsored the Halloween and Valentine's Day dances during the year, in addition to helping organize the annual economic symposium, "Outlook." Dr. Sid Guatam serves as advisor to the Business and Econ Club.

Psych Club

The MC Psychology Club is composed of students majoring in or interested in psychology. During the 1984-85 school year, various speakers addressed the club about aspects of psychology within the Fayetteville/Cumberland County community.

Student NATS

The Methodist College student organization of the National Association of the Teachers of Singing is organized to share ideas and vocal techniques. During the school year, the group attended workshops, master classes, and the NATS state auditions in March. Student NATS also held bake sales throughout the year in addition to gathering at Mr. Porter's home to watch music-related PBS Specials and opera concerts on television.

Pi Kappa Phi

Pictured at the top of the page are the brothers of the Methodist College chapter of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity 1984-85. The fraternity was active during the school year, becoming big brothers to deprived children, raising money for the handicapped, and increasing membership 100%. Striving to excel in academics as well as personal conduct, the Pi Kapps succeeded in making 1984-85 their "best year ever."

Alpha Xi Delta

The Alpha Xi's stayed busy during the school year, sponsoring the annual Christmas dance and blood drives through the Blood Assurance Plan, serving at various receptions on campus, and making baked goods to sell. In addition, two sisters, Lisa Bradshaw and Joyce Elliott, along with faculty advisor Elaine Porter and three alumnae, attended the Epsilon Province Convention of Alpha Xi Delta in Norfolk, VA, in the spring. At the convention, the Methodist College Zeta Mu chapter received five awards.

The Methodist College Chorus enjoyed a challenging year of singing and performing. Under the direction of Alan Porter, the chorus participated in Invisible Fire in October. Also in the fall, a new ensemble, Rainbow's End, was formed by Mr. Porter and four choral students. The quartet, pictured on page 146, was composed of (left to right) Andrea Tolbert, Richard Bicoy, Richard Butler, and Alice Patterson.

Actor Brian Sprague is shown at left portraying Cleonte in Moliere's Would-Be Gentleman comedy presented at the Fifth Annual Fine Arts Festival held in February.

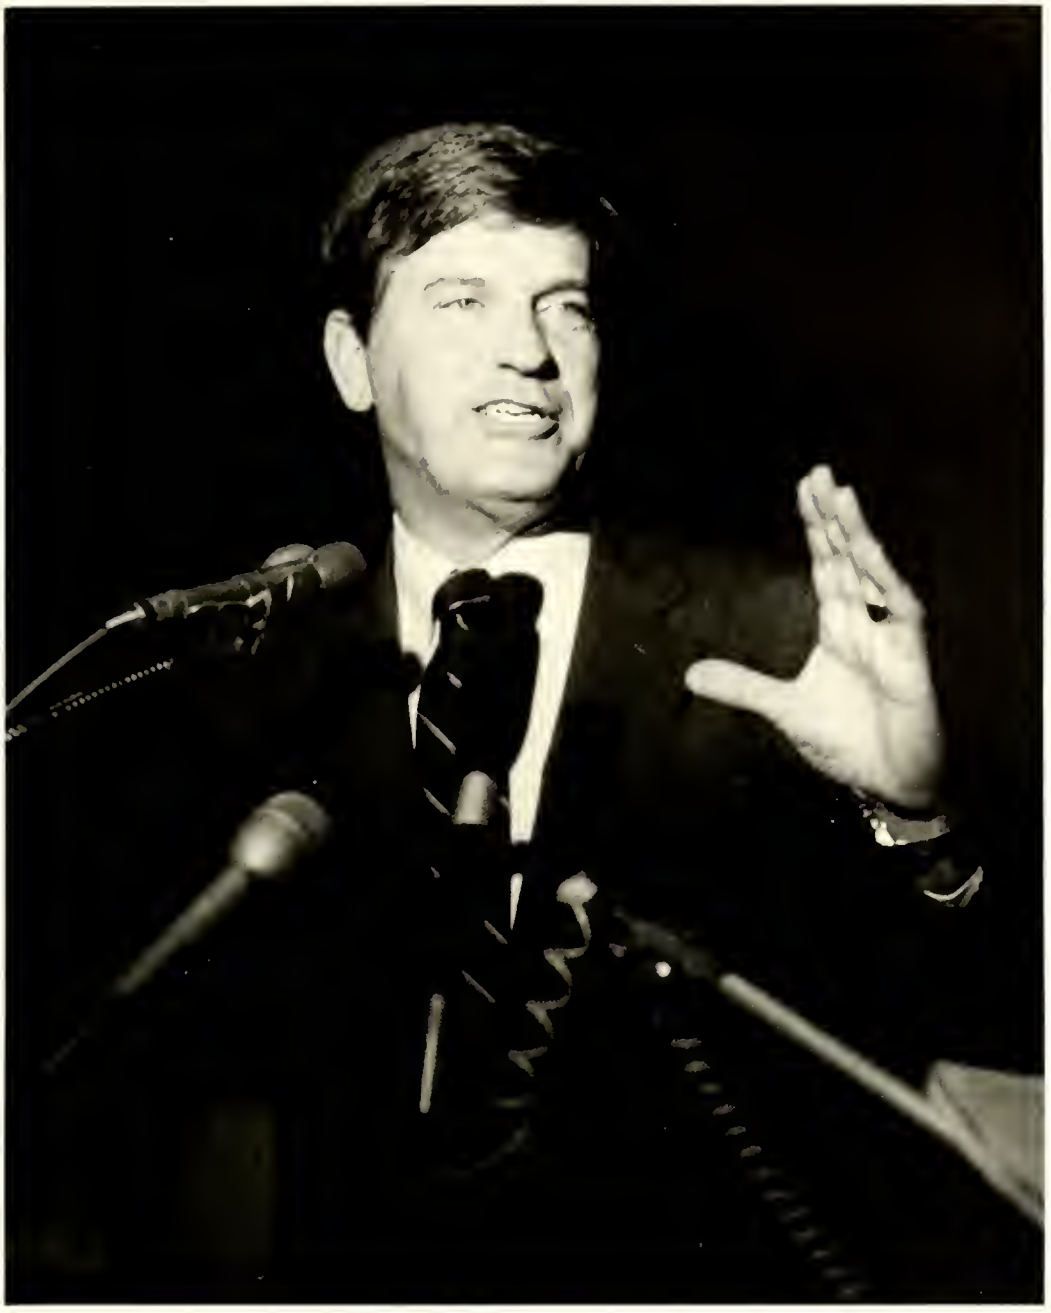
One of the most entertaining evenings of the year was the Gospel Sing, which featured Shirley Caesar. Dr. Joseph Bethea of Raleigh (at right) was the speaker for the event, then Ms. Caesar (bottom, on right), joined by her sister Ann and Company, captivated a packed Reeves Auditorium.



Just 6 days before his election as Governor of North Carolina, Republican gubernatorial candidate Jim Martin appeared at Methodist College. He spoke in Reeves Auditorium and then entertained questions from students and faculty before dining in the cafeteria.

Throughout the year the United Methodist Church uses the facilities at Methodist College for meetings, seminars, and workshops. Pictured at right is the closing service to a 1984 summer workshop.

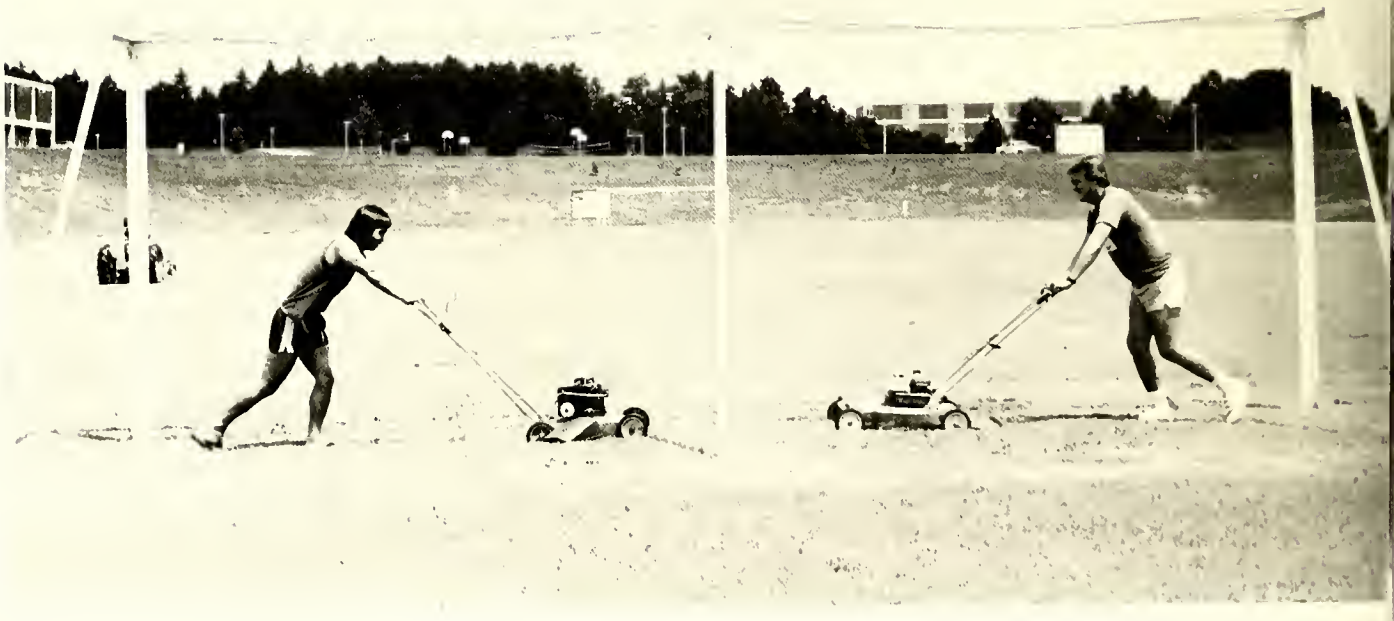
GRAPHY/HISTORY

MC students stay busy, too.



Sometimes the MC community needs a "different perspective." Above, Dr. Robert Perkins captured Hensdale Chapel's reflection in the library's windows one sunny afternoon. At right, photographer Bobby Ayers found three MC students browsing through books in the stacks of Davis Memorial Library.

During the 1984-85 school year, Nautilus North became a favorite work-out spot for many members of the MC community. Above, cheerleading coach Gwen Sykes sets a good example for her squad. She not only tells them to "get in shape" — she actually shows them how.

Mike Baker, senior golfer from Bangor, ME, was Methodist College's nomination for the national collegiate "English Leather Musk Man."

Spring events at Methodist included the Third Annual Southern Writers Symposium and the rebirth of Career Day.

A.L. WILLIAMS

In addition, the annual spring concert was held in honor of Jean Ishee, associate professor of music, in recognition of her 25 years at Methodist College.

SHORTS

GRADUATION

Two new graduation traditions began at Spring Commencement on May 5, 1985. Each international student who graduates from Methodist will present to the College a flag of his country to be carried as part of the processional and recessional at each graduation ceremony. Pictured at left is senior religion major Won Un presenting Korea's flag to president Dr. M. Elton Hendricks.

In addition, a second new tradition established allows graduates to select an individual to follow them on stage and drape them with their academic hoods immediately after receiving their diplomas.

At left is senior Roger Pait of Bladenboro, NC, holding the prestigious Lucius Stacy Weaver Award he received at graduation. On page 156 is Fayetteville native Gina Bailey reading with pleasure the graduation program that contains her name.

"Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.

And when you have reached the mountaintop, then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance."
